

Christine Bilotti-Peterson

Executive Coach - CPC

Christine Bilotti-Peterson is a high-performance Executive Coach and human resource consultant inspiring her individual clients to reach their authentic life goals while helping her corporate clients succeed in attaining their organization's strategic goals.

Christine is experienced working with high potential professionals, executives and teams on individual and team transformation and ultimate effectiveness which includes a broad range of coaching on skill development, leadership or role effectiveness, career transition or escalation, executive presence, public speaking, communication and team development.

Christine has over 25 years of human resource experience and her consulting expertise focuses holistic Human Resource Strategy, talent and succession planning, team selection, assessment and development, recruitment, retention, shared service implementation, workforce planning, and culture transformation.

Christine spent the last five years as the Chief Human Resource Officer of The Hanover Insurance Group. Previous to Hanover, Christine spent 25 years at The Hartford

Financial Services in a variety of Human Resource leadership roles. Christine began her career placing C- level executives in technology, financial services, consumer and insurance sectors with a variety of retained boutique search firms and started her career with Korn Ferry International.

Christine is a Certified Executive Coach by the Institute for Professional Excellence in Coaching (iPEC) and is accredited by The International Coach Federation (ICF), she is also certified to administer the Hogan suite of assessments, and the Leadership Versatility Index-Kaiser Leadership Solutions. Christine holds an MBA from Rensselaer Polytechnic University and a Bachelor of Arts from Central Connecticut State University. She lives in Simsbury, Connecticut with her husband and four children.

Certifications

- Hogan Assessments
- Leadership Versatility Index (LVI)